Re: Political Party Registration

The application for registration of The Platinum Party of Employers Who Think and Act to Increase Awareness, has been received and approved by Elections BC. The political party registration number is PTY-PLAT-2005 and the effective date of registration is March 1, 2005.

Effective immediately, the political party's financial agent may issue income tax receipts for political contributions under the Election Act. The registration number noted above must appear on all income tax receipts issued. A letter and the applicable guides and information outlining the role and responsibilities of the financial agent will be forwarded to Jeff Evans separately.

A registered political party must comply with the provisions of the Election Act. These include the requirement to notify Elections BC within 60 days of changes in registration information, filing election and annual financial reports, and filing audited financial reports upon deregistration.

If you require further information, please contact Louise Sawdon in the Electoral Finance Division of my office using one of the contact options listed at the top of this letter.

Sincerely,

Harry Neufeld
Chief Electoral Officer
